The digital age reminds us that change is constant. As a community we must be attentive to the forces of change and approach our work with a willingness to adapt, adjust, and alter course when necessary.

Some of the milestones and metrics set out below will remain constant. Others will become more specific over time as this plan unfolds.

PEOPLE, COMMUNITY, AND CULTURE

• Establish a baseline of demographic information for students, faculty, and staff to set goals for increased representation among members of equity-deserving groups

• Invest in additional financial supports for students from equity-deserving groups

• Build additional relationships with equity-deserving groups in the local community (e.g., community-facing clinics and services, public lectures, arts and culture events)

• Increase diversity among our faculty and staff, including the recruitment and retention of Indigenous Peoples and members of equity-deserving groups

• Create learning opportunities for faculty and staff on important EDI practices, targeting a 90% participation rate within 5 years

WESTERN’S PLACE IN THE WORLD

• Enhance Western’s campus by investing in the quality, accessibility, and beauty of our physical environment – showcasing campus as a biodiverse living laboratory (e.g., student gathering/collision spaces, sports facilities, entrepreneurship space, enhanced green space)

• Establish a new physical presence in London’s downtown core

• Establish a larger physical presence in Toronto

• Create and measure the efficacy of having a temporary presence in various international locations (e.g., field schools, advanced seminars for professionals, international partnerships with universities and NGOs)

• Increase our international undergraduate student population to 20% and out-of-province students to 15% and provide on-campus supports to ensure their success

• Reduce carbon emissions for campus operations by 45% (over 2005) by 2030 and net-zero by 2050

• Create a sustainability research fund (initially at $1 million) that prioritizes our local and regional partnerships and that creates new experiential learning opportunities for students
